Today's second collection is for Catholic Charities of Dallas. In early 2014, while going through a family and financial crisis, Susie Allen reached out to Catholic Charities of Dallas for help. Her family was struggling to make ends meet after a job lay-off, a car accident and the sudden loss of her daughter. She called many agencies for help, but only Catholic Charities of Dallas answered the call. "They stepped up, and went a little bit further to help my husband and me with food. It was a blessing from God. If it wasn't for Catholic Charities of Dallas, I don't know where my husband and I would be. They mean so very much to me." On November 1 & 2, a weekend annually designated by Bishop Kevin J. Farrell as Catholic Charities Sunday, think of Susie and the countless families in need.
