Have you considered the Catholic school “advantage” for your child? Good Shepherd Catholic School fosters an environment in which academic work is pursued by all students within a personally supportive and caring environment. The relatively small size of 210 students provides opportunities for informal contact between teachers and students, and promotes an organizational structure in which students, parents, and teachers feel they are part of a community. Belong to a school that promotes Gospel values and encourages the formation of students into responsible members of society.

Just 20 minutes away off TX-66, we're located at 214 S. Garland Ave. in Garland. Applications are being accepted for the 2016-2017 school year for students in preschool through grade 8. Financial aid is available. An Open House will be held Tuesday, February 2 at 9:00 am and 6:30 pm.
